

TRANSLATIONAL MEDICINE INSTITUTE COLORADO STATE UNIVERSITY

Colorado State University's Translational Medicine Institute is a spacious, light-filled and modern facility that features the best-in-class laboratory technologies. The goal of the institute is to improve the lives of animals and the humans that care for them.

H2I Group worked with Architect Clark Enersen Partners and General Contractor JE Dunn to provide specialty solutions for this project. H2I Group was contracted to provide Design Assist, Metal & Stainless-Steel Casework, Epoxy Resin & Stone Countertops, Lab Workbenches, Fume Hoods & Biosafety Cabinets, Laboratory & Veterinary Equipment, Environmental Rooms, Architectural Woodwork, Fixed Audience Seating, Overhead monorail System.

DETAILS

Client: Colorado State University
Architect: Clark Enersen Partners
General Contractor: JE Dunn

SUPPLIER PARTNERS

Bedco

SOLUTIONS

Design Assist
Metal Casework
Stainless-Steel Casework
Epoxy Resin Countertops
Stone Countertops
Lab Workbenches
Fume Hoods
Laboratory Equipment
Veterinary Equipment
Environmental Rooms
Architectural Woodwork
Fixed Audience Seating
Overhead Monorail System