

UNIVERSITY OF MARYLAND BARRY P. GOSSETT BASKETBALL PERFORMANCE CENTER

COLLEGE PARK, MARYLAND

H2I Group provided Irwin fixed seating for the team film room at the University of Maryland's Barry P. Gossett Basketball Performance Center in College Park, Maryland. Partnering with Clark Construction Group and Gensler, H2I Group supplied the seating players and coaches use for film review sessions. The project adds dedicated, purpose-built seating to a space central to the program's preparation and game analysis.
